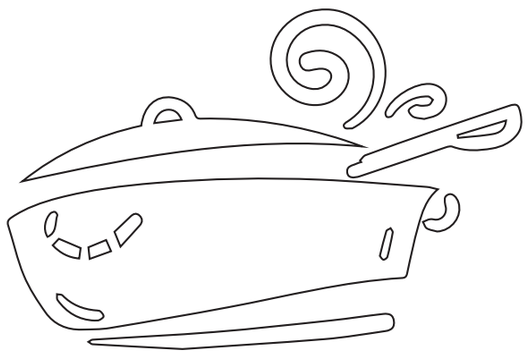
Adònò

The Good Life

Adono is an African theme restaurant which provides its customers with varieties of both local and International cuisine and also recipe specific dishes.

LOGO CONSTRUCTION

After identifying the key elements related to the brand, we went further to form a sketch which around these findings to form a logo mark which tells an indepth story about the brand.



Since the brand has a Nigerian background and an Efik name, the font was marked for easier pronounciation of the brand name by the customers. Accent and tone marks were used to achieve this. In this case the “do” mark was used.
